As high school students we are concerned about our eventual places in the world around us; through the 1961 MEMOIR we endeavor to bring this aspect of our lives into focus through our theme: The Future Is Ours . . .

MANCHESTER
HIGH SCHOOL

We financed this new marker for our school as a result of the many hours of hard work and effort put forth by our student body during the Curtis Magazine Campaign last year.

School Life Hums From

The new building erected in 1942 is still as up-to-date as its students.

It still looks good from every angle.

THE LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA
RICHMOND, VA

Building to Building

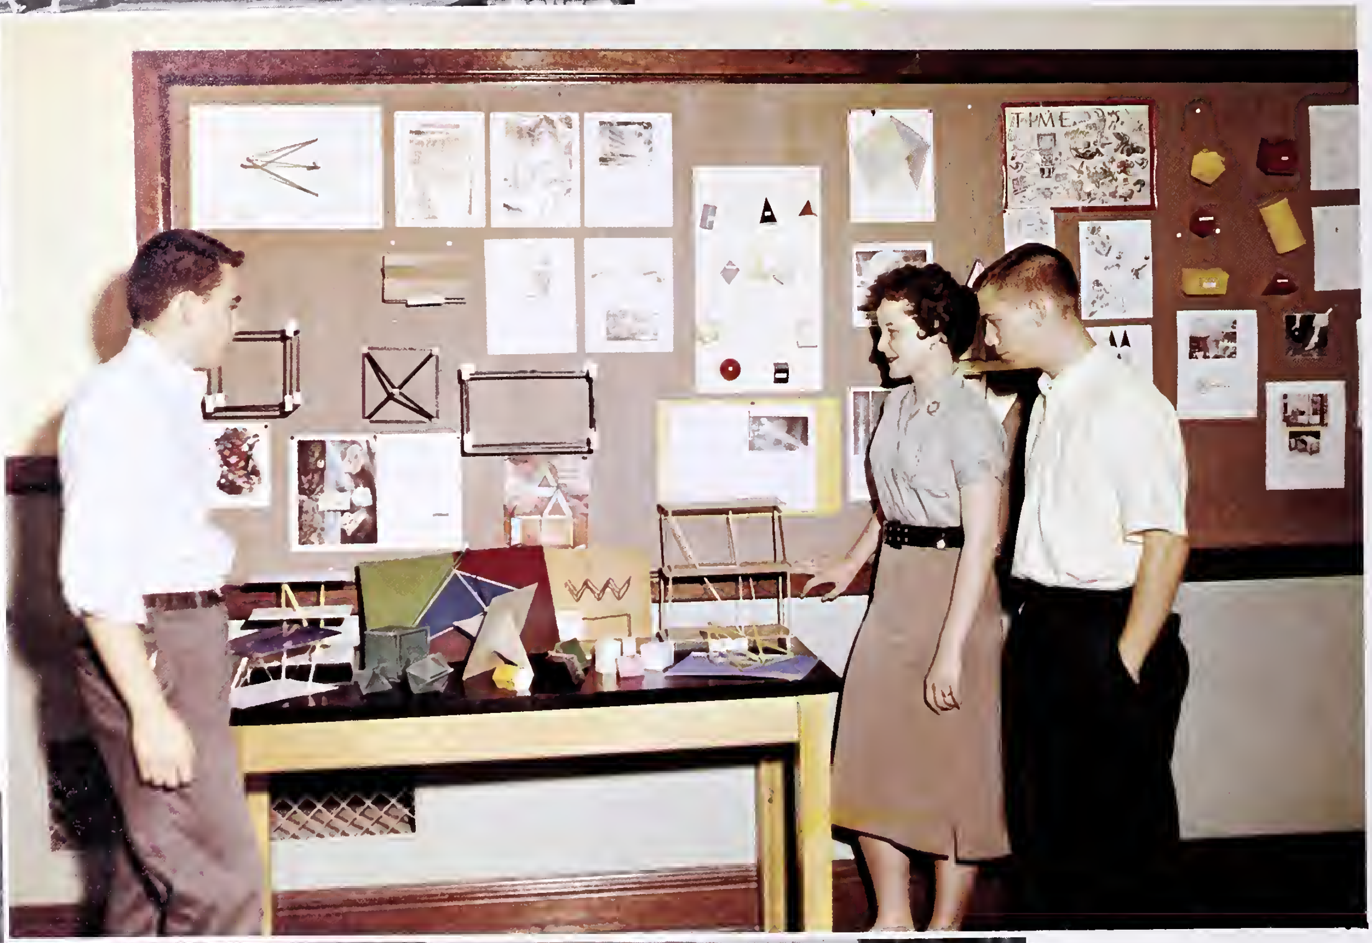
In the shop building are young men hard at work laying the plans for America's future.

Here is the small white cottage in which the homemakers of tomorrow are shaped and molded.

This is the original building which has seen the generations come and go.

Activities Here Are

"T," Tin. or Temporary—it's still the same "ole" building to us.



Math projects help the students to understand the subject.

"The chest is coming along fine, boys," says Mr. Ferguson to his hard-working students.

Many and Varied

The girls' gym classes like to show off what they have learned, but sometimes they just like to show off.

Lanny helps keep Manchester clean.

Mr. Davis directs students as they sketch floor plans.

This Is Our Life

Majorettes, large and small, prepare for the big parade.

These business majors are so good, they don't even need the chart.

"It's easy, all you do is push this button, pull that lever and calculate away."

Through these halls pass the spirit of Manchester.

The cheerleaders decorate for the final game of the season.

The Memoir Class Editor and assistants work hard to be sure no one is left out.

Activities Range From

The library is the place to go for—books!

Couples glide across floor at the Homecoming Dance.

CRUSH the KNIGHT

English literature students look at a model of Shakespearean theater.

LITTLE PEOPLE

Home economics girls enjoy a class discussion.

Hemlines are really coming up this year.

Yackety yak! She's at it again.

The 3:15 bell causes mass confusion.

Foreword

The Future Is Ours is expressed throughout the 1961 MEMOIR as we try to show the path toward the future. We, as students, must try to advance down this path to reach the goal for which we are striving. Through our magazine campaign, our clubs, and our SCA, we advance down this path in ways of salesmanship, speaking, and leadership, while our studies advance our material knowledge to undertake our vocation. These play an important part in our future and aid us in looking to the future with anticipation.

It is with this thought in mind that we have tried to show others how each can make the future his own.

Who has prepared us?
Let us look to our teachers who have so ably assisted us in the difficult and never-ending struggle of preparing ourselves for the future.

To Mrs. Payne . . .

To one

Who has inspired her students to greater study through her steady encouragement;
Who never raises her voice in anger or embarrasses a student for his failure;
Who has such a kind and generous personality that it is often reflected in those around her;
We are deeply indebted.

Through her years at Manchester Mrs. Payne has come to represent more than just a teacher to her students. She has become a wise and understanding friend who has succeeded in becoming better acquainted with her students, and is a teacher who has such undisguised love and respect for her subject, Latin, that it is made much more interesting and enjoyable to her students. Her mature judgment, capable assistance, and unceasing efforts to encourage her students to further their education have helped many to make this decision.

To her, we dedicate the 1961 Memoir.

We Dedicate the 1961 Memoir

Arthur S. Holland, Principal

As our new Principal, Mr. Arthur S. Holland has assumed heavy responsibility, resulting in much extra time and work. Devoting himself wholeheartedly to this tremendous task, he has received the cooperative approval of our student body.

A member of our faculty since 1951, first as a teacher of social studies, next as the assistant principal, and currently as principal, Mr. Holland holds a B.S. degree from East Carolina College, and a M.Ed. from the College of William and Mary.

SCA Strives for

Junior and Senior members of the SCA are F. Garner, D. Brown, G. Barnes, J. Benson, B. Richardson, J. Crostic, V. White, G. Maness, E. Lowman, M. Watkins, B. Thompson, J. Eagles, S. Billups, S. Johnson, M. Cashion, M. Keller, J. Blake, B. Neal, E. Tomes, and N. Hines.

SCA officers are Joyce Blake, Chaplain; Mickey Keller, Treasurer; Bobby Neal, President; Mary Laine Cashion, Secretary; and Edward Tomes, Vice-President.

SCA sponsors are Miss Swain, Miss Dunn and Mr. Bruce.

School Unity

Throughout the life of the school, the Student Cooperative Association has served as the student government. The S.C.A. strives to promote good citizenship and high ideals for the students to abide by; also, the association tries to promote a closer relationship and understanding between the students and faculty and encourages school improvement in all fields.

Bobby Neal, President, calls this assembly to order.

Sandy Billups and Nancy Hines make plans for the SCA dance.

Lower class members are C. Burger, R. Sharp, E. Saunders, E. Anderson, B. Wolcson, P. Thomas, S. Warriner, M. Davis, P. King, P. Martin, R. Phillips, K. Hopson, D. Thompson, J. Durham, J. Cliborne, K. Jones.

Council Begins Second Year . . .

"Why do we have to have dues?" "I suggest two dollars." "No, we don't want any dues!" These problems arising in the senior class meetings are turned over to the Senior Executive Council. Established last year, the council discusses current problems and makes recommendations to the class. Representatives from each senior homeroom make up the council.

B. Wingo, J. Benson, A. Thomas, F. Kain, G. Sheppard, L. Kittle, J. Watkins, M. Keller, J. Padgett, S. O'Neill, W. Childress, G. Douglass, and B. Harmon make up the "hard-working" council.

Mickey Keller, Jim Benson, Gayle Sheppard, Jimmy Watkins, and Bunny Wingo put their feet together to decide upon a big question.

Evidently Freddy Kain doesn't think that this meeting is as orderly as it should be.

President, Freddy Kain, calls a regular meeting to order.

Mrs. Morris, senior class sponsor.

Juniors Form Executive Council

G. Cleveland, C. Strange, J. Fuqua, R. Crowder, D. Hogan, A. Pemberton, S. O'Berry, I. McDaniel, B. Lewis, J. Mays, S. Childress are all members of the Junior Executive Council.

"Order, order . . ."

The Junior Executive Council, established this year for the first time, was created specifically for the purpose of discussing problems and making recommendations to the junior class. It also stresses correct parliamentary procedure in class meetings.

Mrs. Simmons and Miss Swain are sponsors.

Ray Crowder, Dickie Hogan and Judy Fuqua discuss a very important matter.

Carolyn Strange, Gloria Cleveland, Audrey Carter and Babs Lewis get together before a meeting.

Council Promotes Honesty –

Honor Council members are Gary Barnes, Connie Marsh, Caroline Johnson, Travis Martin, and Steve O'Neill. They represent the National Honor Society, the Y-Teens, the Junior National Honor Society, Quill & Scroll, and the Hi-Y, respectively.

Honesty is the best policy!

This is the understanding that the Honor Council tries to instill in our students. The council's main function is to hold a guidance trial for offenders of the school's "Honor Code."

Members of the council represent the following clubs: National Honor Society, National Junior Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, Hi-Y, and Y-Teens.

Gary Barnes tells Barbara Samuel how the Honor Council operates to keep honesty predominant at all times.

Yes! The Honor Code Does Work.

Robert Deaderick, Pat Coghill, and Kip Jones use an old proverb, "see no evil, hear no evil, and speak no evil" to describe the Honor Code.

Connie Marsh, Honor Council member, expains the Honor Code to Jim Turner.

Students use Honor Code cards while taking a test.

Tomorrow's Leaders Chosen

Anderson, G. Barnes.

Jimmy Watkins discusses his grades with Mrs. Krause, one of the sponsors.

Dickie Hogan sells candy to Jimmy Davis, Jim Benson, and Billy Harmon who can't decide which kind to buy.

for NHS Membership

The tapping of new members into the National Honor Society was one of the highlights of the club's activities this year. The members strive to stimulate the scholarship, the leadership, the service, and the character of high school students so they will induce others to strive for scholarly habits, enlist in worthy service, and lead forward in all things that will advance the school and the individuals.

The G. H. Reid Chapter of the National Honor Society, which took the place of the Beta Club, has been at Manchester for six years. Its first sponsor was Mrs. Joan Smith.

Some of this year's activities also included selling candy to raise money for the scholarship for one of the members, keeping the Honor Roll board in the main hall up to date, manning the polls for all school elections, showing new students around school, and renewing college catalogues for guidance purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Krause are this year's sponsors.

Members are R. Phillips, L. Burnett, P. Coghill, C. Johnson, A. Lancaster, K. Colonies, J. Ellett, P. Atkins, E. Loving, K. Pope, J. Cliborne, J. Jennings, and S. Wheat.

Annual Christmas Tree

D. Gorman, M. Coalter, L. Davis, R. Kahl, C. Whitt, A. Lipscomb, M. Von Duhn, M. Brooks, P. Martin, J. Jackson, B. Humphlett, J. Reynolds, J. Jones, J. Martin, M. Hague, P. Shaw, T. Park, M. Dickerson, W. Fabry, V. Powell, J. Morris, P. King, T. Hancock.

The W. N. Kaempf Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society, started in 1956, joins the students in the ninth and tenth grades who have high scholastic records, leadership qualities, outstanding character, and faithful service.

This year the National Junior Honor Society was busy from fall to spring. Activities began with the selection of new members and having a tea for them in the fall; at Christmas the members decorated a tree in the main hall; they visited either an orphanage or home for the aged for an Easter program; and in the spring, all the members got together for a picnic. There were also bake sales throughout the year to raise money.

Some of the members decorate the annual Christmas tree in the lobby.

Quill and Scroll Is

A. Thomas, J. Wilkins, V. Davis, N. Hines, S. Billups, D. Meredith, S. Davies, and B. Martin converse about future Quill and Scroll projects.

Quill and Scroll

Beat Thomas Dale!

This was the slogan printed on the orange and blue homecoming buttons, worn and sold by Quill and Scroll members.

The purpose of Quill and Scroll is to encourage and reward individual achievement in journalism and allied fields. The Society has always taken an active part in raising standards in its field and in directing the course of high school journalism.

Quill and Scroll, first organized at Manchester by Marie N. Morris in May of 1953 with fourteen charter members, is an international organization.

Since Quill and Scroll was organized in 1953, it has won six awards for being the most active chapter in the entire organization.

Two of Quill and Scroll's main events are the Publications' Dance and the Quill and Scroll Banquet.

T. Martin, B. Samuel, B. Bryant, G. Stigall, S. Clapp, and F. Burtchett go to present a program in SCA assembly.

Worth Working For

Mrs. Marie N. Morris, sponsor, examines newspapers from other schools.

Quill and Scroll members practice for the candlelight ceremony at Lee-Davis.

Memoir staff members, Gail Stigall, Nancy Hines, and Diane Meredith, were decorated with buttons to sell for Homecoming.

Officers peep over the railing. They are Travis Martin, President; Sylvia Clapp, Vice-President; Frances Burchett, Secretary; Barbara Bryant, Corresponding Secretary; Barbara Samuel, Treasurer; and Diane Meredith, Chaplain.

Memoir Staff

Gail Stigall, Editor

What color will the annual be? How many pages will it have?

These questions are typical of ones that the Memoir Staff has to find answers to.

This year the staff, consisting of twelve seniors and twelve juniors, took on the painstaking jobs of working with a new publisher, Taylor Co., and presenting the students and faculty with the school's first 9 x 12 color annual.

Gail Stigall, Editor, talks to Janet West, Nancy Clark, Diane Meredith, Nancy Hines, Judy Eagles, Faye Dixon, David Richardson, Sandy Billups, Carolyn Cook, Irene McDaniel, Audrey Carter, and Gail Maness who are all members of the Junior Staff.

Gloria Tinsley,
Business Manager

Shirley Davies, Literary Editor, helps Vernon White, Sports Editor, with copy for his pages.

Gail Stigall, Editor, and Patsy Bradley, Class Editor, get the files back in order.

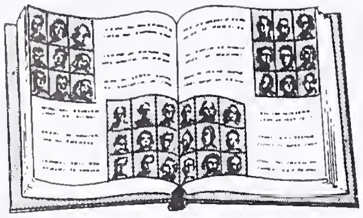
Mrs. Evans, Literary Advisor, and Mrs. Holland, Financial Advisor.

Does It Again

Sammy Lacks, Advertising Manager, and Gloria Tinsley, Business Manager, arrange some ads.



Sally Anderson, Circulation Manager, Gail Stigall, Editor, and Pat Payne, Art Editor, draw up some pages.

David Richardson, Photographer, sets up a shot.

Typists, Mary Ann Jones, and Faye Butler help Literary Editor, Shirley Davies, type up copy.

At last! The Memoir's completed. Now we can relax.

Another Big Year

Stop the presses! This is the latest news flash!

Lost by many schools: a school newspaper and an up-to-date staff.

Found by ambitious journalists: the Communique of Manchester High School, first published in 1941. The present staff, under the leadership of Barbara Samuel, Editor, and the sponsorship of Mrs. Marie N. Morris, has put forth much time, effort, and just plain hard work to present an up-to-date periodical of events around the school and state.

These staff members look as if they are having fun rushing to meet a deadline.

Richard Talley, exchange editor, prepares papers to send to other schools.

Advertising manager, Sylvia Clapp, discusses an eye catching ad with Barbara Wingo and Bonnie Sue Martin, circulation managers.

Jones, and Mrs. Roberts, Sponsor.

A Cappella Choir, founded by Mr. Conrad Walsh in 1950, has been at Manchester twelve years.

The purpose and aims of the choir are to arouse and maintain an enthusiastic interest in the various phases of music in the high school; to lend all possible support, both moral and financial, to the music program in the school; and to build an organization which will help promote the general activities of the music department.

To be eligible for membership the following qualifications are necessary: to have taken choral for one year, to be chosen by the director, and to be able to perform with a group. The group activities include presenting the annual operetta, Christmas and Easter programs at Manchester, singing at McGuire Hospital's Easter Sunrise service, and helping to present the Spring Concert.

For the past five years A Cappella Choir has maintained a Superior (I) rating at the State Music Festival.

Dorothy Jones, Judy Fuqua, Brenda Bangle, and Barbara Hall put away their robes after singing at assembly.

Babs Lewis, Jeanette Norman, Carolyn Butler, Marie Bowman, Sandra Tarves, Joyce Blake, Bonnie Brinckerhoff, Irene McDaniel, Betsy Warriner, and Mary Laine Cashion made up this year's squad.

"Victory! Victory!"

This cheer has been one of the favorites of our cheerleaders and has always aroused enthusiasm and school spirit among the students and parents alike at the games and pep rallies. The games were publicized by posters made by the cheerleaders.

This group of girls, ten regulars and two alternates, also participated in the Tobacco Festival Parade and the annual cheer rally sponsored by Thalhimers department store.

"We've got the coach; we've got the team!"

So goes one of the favorite cheers of the squad which always arouses enthusiasm at Manchester Junior Varsity games.

To promote good, clean sportsmanship among our student body, to support our teams, and to raise morale among the students are the purposes and aims of the squad.

The squad's activities are to cheer at the games after school once a week, and at pep rallies held during activities period.

Monogram Club

OFFICERS are: Gibson Forsysthe, Vice-President: Billy Fridley, President; Freddy Kain, Secretary.

The Monogram Club was started fourteen years ago by Chuck Williams, then a member of the coaching staff. The members of the club consist of boys who have earned a monogram in a varsity sport or have managed one of the teams.

The club conducts clean-up drives for the school grounds, buys sweaters for the senior members' monograms, encourages good sportsmanship at all athletic games, and promotes clean speech and thought among the students of our school.

Allen Russ shows Larry Swann an example of what he'll go through during initiation.

Varsity Club

B. Coffman, N. Mottley, M. A. Jones, P. Lacy, J. McKenney, P. Lindsey, and P. Smigo admire B. Shumake's letter.

The Varsity Club strives to promote interest among girls in athletic activities, health, and good sportsmanship: to develop a spirit of friendliness and comradeship in all the association's activities; and to analyze and develop recreational opportunities of the school, including intramural sports.

The club consists of girls who have earned a monogram for participating in a sport or serving as manager of one of the girls' teams.

The club has been active at Manchester for twelve years. It was started in the year 1948-49 by the girls' coach at that time, Ruby Adams.

Some of the activities of the club are selling sweatshirts, candy, and chrysanthemums for the Homecoming game, and making posters to publicize the girls' games.

"Are you going to the game?" "Have you bought your ticket yet?" "Do you need a ride?"

The Pep Club, which helps to promote school spirit during the football, basketball, track, and baseball seasons, was reorganized in the late fall of 1959. The cheerleaders, with the assistance of the sponsors, instigated the reorganization.

To assist other school organizations, the club helps to make posters to advertise dances, bake sales, school plays, and the operetta. This group also strives to promote better manners and honesty among the students of Manchester.

The Hi-Y is a national organization formed by the Y.M.C.A. as a fellowship of Christian boys of high school age who wish to serve others. Its purpose is to create, maintain, and extend through the home, school, and community the high standards of Christian character.

The Manchester Hi-Y was started in 1951 by about fifteen students. The first advisor, Randy Cheatham, served from 1951 until 1959, when Bruce Bartlam, the present advisor, took over. In the past years the club has promoted campaigns for clean speech and honesty, daily devotions before school, and school grounds clean-up campaigns.

This year's activities included providing new trash cans for the halls, serving for the South Richmond Y.M.C.A. dinners, selling Christmas wreaths, and collecting a "Mile of Pennies" to raise money for the World Service Campaign.

Former Latin Teacher

The Junior Classical League came to Manchester on October 25, 1954. The first sponsor was Miss Geraldine Kantner, a Latin teacher, who in 1957 was succeeded by Mrs. Maggie Payne. The club, which operates on a local basis, is sponsored by the American Classical League, Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

The purpose of the club is to encourage among young people an interest in and appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of Ancient Greece and Rome, and to give them some understanding of the debt of our own culture to that of classical antiquity.

Activities of the club include an annual Latin Club Banquet, similar to a Roman banquet, to initiate new members; and the sponsoring of the Latin students who participate in the yearly Latin Tournament.

FHA Develops

Ever wonder just who the Future Homemakers of America are? Well, to quote a familiar saying, "It could be you!" The F.H.A. of Manchester consists of girls from the ninth through the twelfth grades who are now taking or have taken home economics. To establish a closer relationship among its members, the club has many suppers, picnics, and sales, but to help develop better homemakers for tomorrow is the club's main goal.

"You will marry the Governor of Zeeland! No, father . . . I love Hendrick."

Whether this dramatic threat was to come true or not was revealed in "The Red Mill," written by Victor Herbert. The operetta was presented January fifth and seventh by the Music Department. Due to the unexpectedly large attendance, a special command performance was held January tenth.

Mr. Harriet Roberts, choral instructor, directed and produced the operetta as well as conducting the orchestra.

Miss Memoir

Andrea Reigns

Who is she? Who won? Shhh . . . Here she comes . . . Miss Memoir . . .

This year for the first time the annual staff decided to have a 'Miss Memoir.' The nine senior girls who were nominated were selected on the basis of personality, character and beauty. All of the nominees were required to have a B average.

Miss Catherine Birch, Miss Virginia of 1960, chose the winner from three photographs of each of the nine girls. Her decision . . . the winner is Miss Andrea Jean Thomas. 'Miss Memoir 1961.'

Andrea is as pretty as a picture in any outfit.

Andy, as she is called by her friends, relaxes with her favorite pets.

Miss Catherine Birch, final judge, was Miss Virginia for 1960.

Music Plus Decorations

AT HOM
LIGHTERS

All the members of the Moonlighters, who played at the dance, are students at Manchester.

Signs proclaiming "Go, Team!" "Beat Chester!" were hung on all the walls. As couples danced, they maneuvered around the goal post in the center of the gym floor. All of this went on at the S.C.A. Homecoming dance held in the gym on November 19th.

Everyone was in high spirits as they danced to the music of the "Moonlighters."

The couples enjoyed dancing to the music supplied by the "Moonlighters."

Anybody knows that you have to rest sometimes at a dance.

Equal Fall Dances

Angel hair plus red snow flakes plus music by the Tempos equal senior dance festivities.

The dance, held in the school cafeteria on December 17 at eight o'clock, acquired its theme from the popular "Wonderland by Night," a German song.

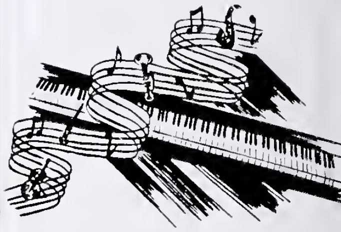
These couples seem to be enjoying the music furnished by the Tempos.

This beautiful tree stood in the center of the cafeteria.

The girls serving at the dance this year were: Christy Orcutt, Patricia Cole, Judy Lamkin, Mary Davis, Wanda LeGrande, Judy Jackson, Norma Horton, Maureen Von Duhn, Sandra Lacy, Janie Barden, Donna Gorman.

These dancers take time out to rest in front of a church scene.

Club Explores Fine Arts



S. Grubb, S. Shelton, Mrs. Hamersly, sponsor, L. Carter, B. Richardson, P. Scroggs, J. Ellett, J. Sumner, B. Burnett, D. Jones, A. Donathan, B. Strong, B. Jones, B. Jones, R. Belcher, P. Lacy, C. Jenkins, E. Morris, B. Belcher, F. Jones, S. Bass, J. Boyd are all members of the Fine Arts Club.

The purpose of the Fine Arts Club is to create interest in the arts.

Each year the members prepare an art exhibit and go on field trips to art museums.

Lancers Show Spirit

MANCHESTER—7 DOUGLAS FREEMAN—7

Manchester, opening its season, struck for its 6 points on the third play of the game. Bobby Neal passed to end Billy Fridley on a scoring play covering 60 yards. Jamie Accashian led the Lancers in total yardage with 58 yards.

MANCHESTER—26 GEORGE WYTHE—0

Manchester experienced its first victory by thumping George Wythe. Quarterback Bobby Neal alternated his offense constantly throughout the game. When his hard-running backs weren't getting the big gains, he went to the air for the needed yardage.

MANCHESTER—19 LANE—25

Trouble was what Manchester's Lancers met at Charlottesville when they faced Lane. Fumbles and penalties were key factors in Manchester's second defeat. Jamie Accashian led the Lancer attack with a pair of TD's gaining a total of 140 yards.

MANCHESTER—32 JOHN MARSHALL—13

Paul Ridout led the Lancers over John Marshall with two TD's of 35 and 46 yards. Allen Russ, Freddy Kain, and Buddy South scored the other TD's with runs of 66, 68, and 35 yards respectively.

MANCHESTER—0 THOMAS JEFFERSON—20

Three interceptions of Manchester passes set in motion T. J.'s decision over the Lancers. Manchester just couldn't seem to get going in the right directions without being hampered by bad breaks. Manchester threatened only once but was halted on the 15 yard line.

in Spite of Losses

MANCHESTER—0 HIGHLAND SPRINGS—15

Manchester played one of its better games in this defeat, and aside from the second quarter surge by the Springers played on even terms with its conquerors. Not only did the Lancers receive another loss, but also a multiple of injuries.

MANCHESTER—0 HERMITAGE—28

Manchester 28-0 loss to Hermitage was its third straight of the season. The Lancers' defense looked strong in the first half but tired in the second. The Lancers without the services of Buddy South had only 16 yards total yardage gained.

MANCHESTER—19 PETERSBURG—26

Buddy South, back in his true form, tried to lead Manchester to its third victory. South scored twice, playing a fine defensive game along with John Barden, Billy Fridley, and Willard Childress. This was the Lancers' sixth loss of the season.

MANCHESTER—7 HOPEWELL—7

Hopewell's Blue Devils scored its TD in the third quarter on a Manchester fumble to prevent the Lancers' gaining their third win. The Lancers led 7-0 at half on Buddy South's 16-yard off tackle run and conversion in the second period.

MANCHESTER—20 THOMAS DALE—27

Manchester lost out to the Knights in the Turkey Day special in the last minutes of the game. South, Ridout, and Accashian were the offensive stars with a total of 232 yards. Paul Ridout and the Manchester fans will long remember his 75 yard kickoff return that tied the game at 20-20.

Block that pass!

Thanksgiving Day 1960 was a very important day, filled with joy and disappointment. During the half-time of the Thanksgiving Day classic with Thomas Dale, various clubs entered floats in the traditional parade. The Latin Club was awarded the prize for having the best float this year. The event for which everyone was waiting, the crowning of the homecoming queen, took place in the letter "C" as the band spelled out LANCERS across the field. Mr. Holland crowned Marlene Cosby queen, as Mrs. Holland presented her with a dozen red roses. Thomas Dale proved too powerful and won the game 27 to 20. Although disappointed, we realized that it's not who wins the game, but the spirit in which it's played that counts.

After commencement, what are you going to commence?

Before you make your final decision, consider a telephone career. You'll start with good pay. What's more, you'll earn frequent raises as you learn. And the training you receive is excellent. You'll also enjoy interesting work, friendly people and pleasant surroundings. And you'll have the satisfaction of serving your own community. So why not commence a rewarding career with a telephone job?

Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our alma mater,
Gentle mother of our minds;
As we leave thy sheltering rafters
May we equal nurture find.

Old Manchester, we'll remember
All the laughter and the tears;
And of teachers, friends, and classmates
Treasure memories thru' the years.

And in evening's twilight gleaming,
Maybe when we're old and gray,
We'll remember in our dreaming
Long ago and far away.

Alma mater! Alma mater!
We will love thee while we live.
To Manchester, now and always,
We our fond allegiance give.
